2010 History of Christianity and Western Civilization European Faith & Freedom Tour

JOIN ME ON A GREAT FAMILY ADVENTURE

Rome, Pompeii, Geneva, Versailles, Paris, London, York, Edinburgh, and Much More!

On behalf of Vision Forum Ministries and the Phillips family, it is my pleasure to invite you to join me on what I believe may be one of the greatest adventures of our lifetime—a two-thousand-year journey through the history of Christianity and Western Civilization.

Over the course of fourteen days, we will travel to five separate countries, sample some of the great cuisines of Europe, grow close as families and friends and immerse ourselves in an enthusiastic, hands-on study of God's providential history.

Our message is simple: God has orchestrated and providentially directed the last two thousand years of earth history to demonstrate His glory, to hearten his Bride, to prepare future leaders of Christian warriors, and to demonstrate that the very gates of Hell will not prevail against the Church.

There is simply nothing like the Vision Forum Ministries 2010 History of Christianity and Western Civilization Faith & Freedom Tour. It's a vacation and a Ph.D. course in Church history for the family all wrapped up into one spectacular adventure!

OUR FACULTY OF HISTORIANS

I am privileged to have two of my longtime friends—and two of America’s finest historians—as fellow interpreters with my on our great journey through Europe’s past: William Potter and Dr. Joseph Morecraft III.

Bill Potter and I have been close friends for nearly 25 years and have been leading Faith & Freedom Tours together for well over a decade to the great graveyards, settlements, churches, and battlefields of the Old Dominion, Historic Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, as well as to the key battlefields, kirks, castles, and lochs of Scotland. In my opinion, Bill is the single most capable teacher of military history from a proper theological and practical perspective and is one of the best generalists on American and world history who interprets the past through a providential lense. An experienced researcher and writer, Bill possesses a practical knowledge of antiquarian books, documents, and artifacts and has published several short books and has penned many articles and book reviews for publication. As a father of eight children, he appreciates the necessity of passing on to the succeeding generations the richness of our past. Bill currently serves as the Historian and Curator of The Circa History Guild, located in the Atlanta,

FIVE COUNTRIES, FOURTEEN DAYS

Georgia area, where he and his wife, Leslie, make their home.

I have been honored to know Dr. Joe Morecraft since I was seventeen years old, and in my view, he is the single greatest historian on the Reformation today because of how he passionately brings to life the key people and events of this period as well as the practical lessons that the church must learn from them today. Dr. Joe is a walking encyclopedia of theology and history, and his published works include two books: How

God Wants Us to Worship Him: A Defense of the Bible as the Only Standard for Modern Worship, and With Liberty and Justice for All: Christian Politics Made Simple, as well as his just-completed multi-volume work entitled, Authentic Christianity: An Exposition of the Theology and Ethics of the Westminster Larger Catechism, which, in my view, is a singular theological work that every Christian family should add to their library. Dr. Joe contributed four chapters to Vision Forum's book, John Calvin: Man of the Millennium, and he has pastored Chalcedon Presbyterian Church of Dunwoody, Georgia, since 1974. He and his lovely wife, Becky, along with their youngest daughter, Mercy, make their home in nearby Canton, Georgia.

DAY 1
MAY 2, 2010

It Begins With a Celebration

Welcome to the city of Caesars and Apostles, of tyrants and martyrs, pontiffs and prophets—welcome to Rome, one of the formulative cities in the battle for Western Civilization.

For the better part of two millennia, Rome will influence the destinies of billions of people, will shape nation-building, influence warfare, spread distinctive and highly influential visions of art and architecture, define language, impact monetary systems, advance technology, generate theological controversies, and much more.

And as we begin our journey through two thousand years of Christianity and Western Civilization, we will chronicle the Hebraic heritage leading to the captivity of the Jews under Rome, the Fall of the Roman Republic, the Rise of its Empire, and the unique providential allowance of the laws, religion, military, technology, and culture of Rome to serve as the incubator and disseminator of Christianity.

Prepare for a historical experience that will allow you to understand the amazing and providentially directed battle plan used of the Lord to protect the Church of Jesus Christ for two thousand years against the very gates of Hell.

But first, enjoy a rousing celebration as we feast together and delight in the hospitality of the Rome as we enjoy our opening evening banquet, Italian style. It will be an intimate time of great fellowship for the friends and family with us. We will top the evening off with a rousing overview presentation of the historical issues, providences, sights and sounds that will be part of the great adventure ahead of us.

ROME

DAY 2
MAY 3, 2010

The Playground of the Caesars

Here Caesars played and early Christians laid the foundation for the most far-reaching Great Commission expansion in the history of the Church. We will travel by motor coach and on foot to see some of the most significant sites in all of Western culture. In the massive Coliseum, we will study the impact of the Roman games, the rise of the gladiator and the martyrdom of Christians before the lions. We will stand in the Circus Maximus, the true location of the great chariot races once popularized by the film Ben Hur.

We will learn about the architecture, art, and politics of both the Roman Republic and Empire as we survey the once glorious Forum, and learn God's providential history involved in the Arch of Titus, the Arch of Constantine, Palatine Hill, the Basilica di San Clemente, and more. Evening is at your leisure.

ROME

DAY 3
MAY 4, 2010

The Catacombs, Pantheon, & Appian Way

Having toured the heart of the ancient Roman government and cultural centers in the interior of the city, today we will tour the catacombs where many early Christians survived great persecution, but still others did not. We will be reminded that “the blood of the martyrs [became] the seed of the church,” and we will consider strategies that modern Christians can learn for times of adversity from these early believers.

Today, we also visit the great Pantheon. Originally a temple for all pagan gods, the Pantheon was converted into a church in A.D. 609. It now contains the tombs of the famous artist Raphael and several Italian Kings. Next, we will visit the Roman walls and the Appian Way, the strategic launching pad for Roman expansion and a providential tool for the spread of the Gospel. In 71 A.D. the Appian Way was the location for the crucifixion of 6,000 Roman slaves under the command of Spartacus. Evening at leisure.

POMPEII

DAY 4
MAY 5, 2010

The Face of Judgment

A lot happened in the first century A.D. The Church was birthed, the Canon of Scripture completed, the Temple of Jerusalem was destroyed, the great persecutions began, and the city of Pompeii became a showcase for the comprehensive judgment of God through a cataclysmic earthquake so powerful that its effects were virtually instantaneous.

Today we travel to Pompeii—a Roman city given over to opulence, perversion, and excess—which was utterly destroyed when Mount Vesuvius blew in 79 A.D. Pompeii was buried under twenty meters of ash and pumice, and it was lost for nearly 1,700 years before its rediscovery in 1748.

No other excavation in the world shows so clearly what it looks like for a city to be judged and destroyed. The remarkable excavation is like a snapshot of life frozen in time, just before the catastrophe.

ROME/GENEVA

DAY 5
MAY 6, 2010

An Exhilarating Train Ride through History

Day Five is special. Prepare to enjoy the quintessential European adventure experience—Vision Forum style. Voyage by train from Rome, by the Swiss Alps, to beautiful Geneva, land of the Reformation and one-time home of John Calvin.

During our relaxing train ride you will have an opportunity to see the European countryside in style. As we travel, our historians will trace the stories of the growth and development of Christendom through the battles, heroes, and villains of the Post-Roman era. As we travel by train past key historical locations, we will note the stories and theological controversies that helped to define each epoch in history, the great trends in architecture and art, and the cultural influences that built Western Civilization. Take special note as we pass near the land of the Waldenses, those early Reformers who paved the way for Luther and Calvin.

GENEVA

DAY 6
MAY 7, 2010

Where John Calvin Changed the World

It is a great privilege to arrive in Geneva just before the conclusion of the 500th anniversary year of John Calvin's birth. Calvin has correctly been called "the true founding father of America," but most Christians are largely ignorant or misinformed today about the man who did so much to defend orthodox Christianity and advance the cause of true reform.

Our adventure begins with a walking tour in Geneva's historic old town. We will visit the location where Calvin formed his famous school that was so instrumental in discipling many leaders who then exported Reformation doctrines to thousands of congregations. We will visit the great Reformation monument to Calvin, Farel, Beza, and Knox, and then tour St. Peter's Cathedral.

The afternoon is at leisure, but in the evening we'll enjoy a cruise on Lake Geneva, complete with a traditional Swiss cheese fondue.

VERSAILLES

DAY 7
MAY 8, 2010

The Greatest Palace in Europe

The great antithesis to the War of American Independence was the French Revolution. The one was a fight of Christian leaders seeking to enforce godly covenants, to defend women and children, and to appeal to a lawful order under God. The other was a rebellion which aspired to dethrone God, to rebel against His law, and to do so through a blood bath.

But it was here at Versailles, home to the “Sun King”

Louis XIV, that the excess and pride and opulent vision of the old pre-revolutionary order was highlighted in bold. About 37,000 acres of land were cleared to make room for tree-lined terraces, walkways, and thousands of flowering plants. There were 1,400 fountains and 400 pieces of sculpture. More than 36,000 workers were involved in the project, and when the building was completed it could accommodate up to 5,000 people, including servants. About 14,000 soldiers and servants were quartered in annexes and in the nearby town.

While at the Palace, we will tour the immense interior of this gilded building. We will visit the amazing Hall of Mirrors, Marie Antoinette’s retreat—The Queen’s Hamlet—and the stunningly beautiful gardens and mazes which bedeck this enormous estate.

PARIS

DAY 7
MAY 8, 2010

An Evening Tour of La Ville-Lumière

After a beautiful day in Versailles, you will have an opportunity to check into your hotel and enjoy dining on your own as a family in a city world renowned for its fine cuisine. Later that evening, you may join us for an optional evening tour of the “City of Lights.”

Paris is beautiful in the evening, and we will have a special opportunity to travel by motor coach to some of the most picturesque and illuminated locations including the famous Cathedral of Notre Dame, Place de la Concorde, the Arc de Triomphe, the Trocadero, and much more.

We will be back in time on this evening for you to prepare to leave the continent of Europe for Great Britain the next morning.

NOYON

DAY 8
MAY 9, 2010

Sabbath Worship by Calvin's Home Sunset Boat Cruise Down the Seine

John Calvin shaped the course of the world in large part through his writings and ministry while in Geneva, but his origins are French, and the place of his birth and childhood is nestled just outside of Paris in the ancient community of Noyon. The city was founded by the Romans and centuries later, in 768, Noyon was the location where the great Charlemagne was crowned Holy Roman Emperor.

But our purpose for visiting Noyon is directly related to John Calvin, who just celebrated his 500th birthday. For Day 8 of our Faith and Freedom Tour, a Sabbath Day, we hope to worship the Lord in the town of Calvin's birth.

We will visit the John Calvin Museum and see artifacts from Calvin's life, as well as original manuscripts and early-edition Bibles owned by Calvin.

That night we return to Paris for an unforgettable sunset tour of the beautiful Seine River through Paris by boat.

LONDON

DAY 9
MAY 10, 2010

The Greatest Museum in the World

When you rise you will be in Paris, but thanks to the great channel-crossing super-train, London is just two-and-a-half hours away.

When we arrive in London, our mission will be to first visit the great Metropolitan Tabernacle of Charles Spurgeon, followed by a visit to the final resting place of many of the most-beloved Reformation heroes of the Faith at Bunhill Graveyard, including John Bunyan, John Gill, and John Owen.

But the piece de resistance of our day is a specially-prepared Christian history tour of the greatest museum in the world, the British Museum. Our unique tour brings the eternal truths of Scripture together with the greatest storehouse of the past since the Library of Alexandria. You will come face to face with artifacts from the court of Nebuchadnezzar, the treasures of ancient Assyria, the wealth of the Persian Empire, the mummies of the Pharaohs, and the Rosetta Stone itself.

We will help you link these artifacts and interpret them in light of their biblical counterpart stories and heroes detailed in the Word of God.

SCROOBY/BOSTON

DAY 10
MAY 11, 2010

A Day of Christian Heroes and Castles

This morning, we will journey from London to the North on a special adventure in search of some of the greatest, yet often unsung, heroes of Christian history. Our journey will take us to gorgeous locations like Tattershall Castle and Grimsthorpe Castle, where famous Reformers stayed and America's founding father Captain John Smith received his military training. We may have an opportunity to experience some hawking and knightly combat.

Next we visit Boston, Ely and Scrooby—the true “Land of the Pilgrims.” In Ely we see the cathedral and Stained Glass Museum. Oliver Cromwell lived one block from the museum during the Civil War in the 1600s when the Puritans destroyed much of what had been Roman Catholic.

In Scrooby we fulfill a lifetime dream of Doug Phillips by visiting the Pilgrim Separatist Church founded in 1606 by Pastor John Robinson and Elder William Brewster.

Here we honor the memory of the first secret gathering that met by candlelight and suffered imprisonment before fleeing to America by way of Holland.

Finally, we visit historic Boston, home of Puritan leaders John Winthrop and John Cotton, Simon and Anne Bradstreet, and John Foxe, the author of Foxe's Book of Martyrs.

YORK

DAY 11
MAY 12, 2010

The Greatest Medieval Fortress City

Day 11 brings us to the walled city of York, arguably the greatest medieval fortress city remaining in Europe. For centuries York was the grandest fortification city for Romans, Vikings, and Normans. In York we will study nearly 2,000 years of history beginning with the Roman conquest and crowning of the controversial Emperor Constantine, who claimed to have received a vision telling him to conquer in the name of Christ.

We will continue our study of civilization, warfare, architecture, and economy as we walk the Roman walls and visit the “Shambles.”

York is also our day to study the Vikings as we visit the Jorvik exhibition and get a real sense of the sights and smells and sounds of life in York, 1,000 years ago. Our tour will take us to the great Yorkshire Cathedral—the largest Gothic cathedral north of the Alps and a place of worship for over 1,000 years. It is here where Constantine was made Roman emperor. His statue outside the cathedral marks the spot.

Shakespeare fans will enjoy our stop at the Richard III Museum, an exhibition which presents the story of Richard III in the form of a ‘trial’. You can give your verdict when Richard is charged with the murders of the Princes in the Tower.

SCOTLAND

DAY 12
MAY 13, 2010

The Land of Bravehearts & Covenanters

I know of no country with a millennia-plus history as brimming with stories of courage against all odds, nobility in the face of tyranny, and world-influencing Gospel vision, as that of Scotland. It is the land of bravehearts and covenanters. The beauty of Scotland is simply overwhelming. Having set foot in this rich and haunting world, you too will shout “alba gu bra,” and part of your heart will remain here forever.

Our own mission begins after a hearty Scottish breakfast at our favorite hotel in the world, The Caledonian, after which we will trek to St. Andrews, the spiritual capital of Scotland and the place where Scotland’s Reformation began. There we will stand on the ruins of St. Andrews Cathedral which dates back to 1160 A.D., and we will tour the once secret underground tunnels used to defend St.

Andrews Castle. We will visit the principal location for many of Scotland’s battles and peace treaties, even as we study the lives of reformers, martyrs and theologians, including Samuel Rutherford and George Wishart, the latter who was burned at the stake. We will note the marker identifying the place where Wishart was martyred as well as the spot where Patrick Hamilton gave his life for Christ.

Next, we will spend the afternoon exploring Scottish castles and mysterious monoliths left by druids, where we will have an opportunity to experience ancient Scotland at its best.

BATTLEFIELDS

DAY 13
MAY 14, 2010

In Search of Wallace, Bruce, & the Holy Grail

Today will be a day of epic warfare and unsolved mysteries as we walk in the steps of the mighty William Wallace and Robert the Bruce and relive their great battles of Sterling, Falkirk, and Bannockburn. With our sons and daughters beside us, we will sing the songs of Scotland's bravery and re-enact the battle of Bannockburn. We will visit the remarkable walled city of Stirling and climb the William Wallace Monument. On this location, the great Braveheart fought for the freedom of Scotland. Later the pastor and leader of the Covenanters, William Guthrie, was captured here and shortly after was martyred by Charles II of England.

Our day will conclude with an investigation into the mysteries of the Knights Templar, the Masons in search of the Holy Grail, at the controversial and much acclaimed Rosslyn Chapel (recently popularized in the misguided film, The Da Vinci Code). Our Vision Forum history tour guides will present our own perspective on the Templars and the mysteries of the Chapel.

EDINBURGH

DAY 14
MAY 15, 2010

The Covenanters and the Royal Mile

There is no better place to conclude our adventure in Scotland than in the city which has made it famous. Edinburgh is rightly called “The Prince of Cities.” Here the Reformation will unfold with the fiery preaching and heroic leadership of the great John Knox. Here you will be introduced to a city that, for more than one thousand years, has been home to some of the world’s most influential kings and queens, preachers, poets, authors, and architects. Edinburgh is known for many things—its magnificent an impenetrable Castle, the great St. Giles Cathedral, the Queen’s Holyrood Palace, and of course, the Royal Mile.

In Edinburgh you will see St. Giles where Knox preached. He preached from this pulpit with such spirit-led passion that the Scottish people banished Mary, Queen of Scots and established principles of Christian self and civil liberty in the hearts of people.

We will visit the Greyfriars Kirk and Kirkyard where our historians will share the powerful story of the Scottish Covenanters, the Christian martyrs who were persecuted but stood for the truth of the gospel against the most powerful kings of Europe and bequeathed the legacy of Christian liberty to America.

JOURNEY'S END

DAY 14
MAY 15, 2010

An Evening to Remember

To God be the glory! When we reach this day, we will have traveled through five countries and nearly two millennia of the providential history of Christianity and Western Civilization. And one thing will be clear: The very gates of Hell will not prevail against Christ's Bride.

Over the course of this once-in-a-lifetime adventure, our children—by God's grace—will have grown stronger in their faith, their resolves, and their perspective as they have learned from the witness of character patterned by spiritual fathers long-departed from the earth.

And, God willing, one other thing will be true: We will have drawn closer as friends and families. But before we say goodbye, we will enjoy a traditional Robert Burns celebration dinner—complete with poetry, bagpipes, song, and, of course, Scotland's national dish, haggis. It's optional to eat this national delicacy, but if you want a sense of what it's like, take a look at the above image as Beall Phillips takes her very first bite. It's an evening to remember and a wonderful way to celebrate and give thanks for the goodness of God.

SPECIAL BONUS

A Worship Service to Tell Your Great-Grandchildren About

In the same year the Geneva Bible was published, John Knox—having just returned to Scotland from his season with John Calvin in Geneva—led a committee in drafting The Scottish Confession of Faith of 1560. About a half a dozen learned men of God, each with the first name of John, met in Magdalen Chapel in Edinburgh (pictured right), for the historic act. This document would strongly influence the Westminster Confession of Faith and later the London Baptist Confession.

Thirty years ago, a young Joe Morecraft and his bride visited this chapel. Today he will return to Magdalen to bring the Word of God on the Christian Sabbath at one of the most noble locations of our great providential history. (Vision Forum Ministries is in the process of securing this important church building, as the location of our Sabbath worship for those who chose to stay on their own through Sunday.) Following the worship service, we will walk to Greyfriars and conclude with a hymn-sing by the Martyrs' Monument.

MARTYRS' MONUMENT TEXT

Halt passenger, take heed what you do see, This tomb doth shew, for what some men did die, Here lies interr'd the dust of those who stood 'Gainst perjury, resisting unto blood', Adhering to the Covenants and laws, Establishing the same; which was the cause Their lives were sacrific'd unto the lust Of Prelatist abjur'd; Though here their dust Lies mixt with murderers and other crew, Whom Justice justly did to death pursue: But as for them no case was to be found Worthy of death but only they were found, Constant and steadfast, zealous witnessing, For the Prerogatives of CHRIST their KING, Which Truths were sealed by famous Guthrie's head, And all along to Mr. Renwick's blood, They did endure the wrath of enemies: Reproaches, torments, deaths and injuries, But yet they're those who from such troubles came, And now triumph in glory with the LAMB.
